

Contents

Introduction 7

1 Jesus and the First Christians 8

- Judaism 8
 - Jesus' Palestine* 10
- Jesus 12
 - The sources for Jesus 12
 - The ministry of Jesus 14
 - The titles of Jesus* 14
 - Opposition and death 15
- The first Christians 17
 - The followers of Jesus 17
 - The resurrection 18
 - The Acts of the Apostles 19
 - Pentecost 20
- The first days of the church 21
 - The faith of the first Christians 22
 - The first persecutions 24
 - The spread of the church 25
- Paul 26
 - Paul's letters 30
 - Paul's Christian message 31

2 From One Generation to the Next 36

- The Christian communities 36
- From oral traditions to the written word 38
- Living as a Christian 40
 - Christian morality 41
- The first liturgies 43
 - Baptism 43
 - The Eucharist 44
 - Other services 48
- Leading the community 48
 - The 'pillars' of the church 48
 - Prophets and apostles 49
 - The emergence of hierarchy 50
- Unity and division 52

3 Opposition and Persecution 56

- Christianity and Judaism 57
 - Judaism in the first century AD 57
 - The Jewishness of Christianity 61
 - The Ebionites* 62
 - A religious spectrum 65
 - Church and synagogue: before AD 70 66
 - Church and synagogue: after AD 70 69
 - Christian attitudes to Judaism* 71
- The imperial persecutions 72
 - Ignatius of Antioch* 74
 - The book of Revelation 75
- Changing beliefs 77
 - The return of Christ 77
 - The cosmic Christ 78

4 The Church in the Empire 80

- Alexandria* 83
- Christianity in the east 85
 - Edessa 85
 - The Persian church 87
- Living as a Christian 88
 - Life and death 88
 - Christians and class* 89
 - Women in the church 92
 - Sexual morality and asceticism 94
 - A Christian moralist* 97
- Liturgy 98
- The mystery religions 100
 - Mithraism* 103
- Christian art 105

5 Christians in a Hostile World 108

- Roman religion 108
- Attitudes to the Christians 110
 - Popular attitudes 110
 - The philosophers and the Christians 111
- The persecutions 115
 - Christians on trial* 117
 - The church and the mob 118
 - Co-ordinated persecutions 119
 - Executing the Christians* 122
 - The Great Persecution 123
- A theology of martyrdom 125
 - The relics 128

6 Christian Philosophy 130

- Justin Martyr 131
 - Later apologists* 134
- Clement of Alexandria 136
- Origen 137
 - Origen's life 138
 - Origen's philosophy 140
 - The spiritual life 142

7 Heresy and Orthodoxy 144

- The emergence of orthodoxy 145
- Variant Christianities 146
 - Modalism 146
 - Marcionism 147
 - Montanism 148
- Gnosticism 150
 - Gnostic movements* 152
- The rule of faith 154
 - Irenaeus and the gnostics 154
 - Tertullian 157

The role of the church 159
 Cyprian and the unity of the church 159
 Bishops and synods 162
The role of Scripture 163
 The Old Testament 164
 The New Testament 165

8 The Christian Empire 168

The emperor Constantine 168
 The legend 168
 The political context 169
 The Edict of Milan 170
 Constantine the Christian 172
 Sole emperor 175
The church and society 176
 The status of bishops 176
 The church and the welfare system 177
 The growth of the church 178
Art and architecture 181
 Christian architecture 181
 Christian art 183
Relics and pilgrimages 185
 Relics 185
 Sacred geography 186

9 A Divided Church 188

The Donatist schism 189
 Donatist origins 189
 Constantine intervenes 190
 Donatus triumphant 190
 The Circumcellions 192
The Arian conflict 193
 Arius 193
 The controversy widens 194
 The council of Nicaea 195
 The reinvention of Christianity? 197

Arianism – the next phase 198
 The role of the emperors 199
 The next generation 201
 A new solution 203

10 The First Monks 206

Antony the Great 206
The semi-communal lifestyle 209
Living in the desert 210
 Evagrius Ponticus 211
 The demons of temptation 211
 Discipline 213
Pachomius and the first monasteries 214
Syrian monasticism 215
 Ephrem the Syrian 216
 John Chrysostom 216
 Messalianism 217
The monks and the wider world 217
 The philosophical ideal 219
 Augustine of Hippo 220
 John Cassian 222
 Palestine 223

11 The Official Church 226

Christianity outside the empire 226
 The Sassanid empire 226
 The barbarians 229
 The Armenian church 230
Christianity and paganism 232
 The rebellion of Magnentius 232
 Constantius and the pagans 233
 Julian and the pagan revival

234
 Paganism after Julian 236
The age of Theodosius 237
 Ambrose of Milan 237
 Theodosius I and Gregory of Nazianzus 239
 The council of Constantinople 240
 Paganism in the age of Theodosius 242
Morality in an official church 243
 Jovinianism 243
 Priscillianism 244
 Donatism 245
 Pelagianism 246
Epilogue 248
Notes 250
Further Reading 251
Index 253
Acknowledgments 256